Keela bakken, Harris Companies:

Congratulations on being recognized as a 2010 Xcel Energy Efficiency Partner!

This award recognizes that you are in a select group of our business customers who achieved exceptional energy efficiency in 2009. Please accept and display the enclosed award in appreciation of your efforts and in recognition of your environmental and energy efficiency achievements.

Enclosed is the recognition plaque with the name of your company and the building that qualified for the award. Along with the plaque, which is made from environmentally friendly materials, we are including several window decals featuring our Efficiency Partner logo.

Please display the award and the decals for your employees and customers to see the public recognition of your energy saving efforts. As an award winner you also have the opportunity to use the Efficiency Partner logo in your company promotional materials.

If you selected "public recognition" on your award application, you also may receive recognition in other Xcel Energy efforts throughout the year..

Thank you again for your commitment to energy savings; we look forward to working with you to save even more energy during 2010. Please visit ResponsibleByNature.com/Business or contact your Xcel Energy account manager or call our Business Solutions Center at 1-800-481-4700 to explore additional energy-saving and cost-cutting opportunities for your business.

If you have questions, comments, or would like to use the Efficiency Partner logo in your materials, please contact Ryan Schunk: ryan.d.schunk@xcelenergy.com or by phone (612) 330-6217.

Sincerely,

Ryan Schunk
